House building advances to officers who do not hold permanent appointments under govt are not admissible —

In the present case information at present available is that Mr Channappa holds any substantive appointment in the PWD or other dept is awaited —.

There has been a precedent of giving an advance to an officer in a Electrical dept in March 1913, but in that case, tho the dept is technically a temporary one, the officer was stated to hold a substantive appointment within the meaning of M. S. R, and there was the addl security of his having insured his life in the M. S. & scheme —

(Ile)

The present case is distinguishable from it — Mr Channappa does not enjoy his latter trust he has insured his life with govt.

Unless the DPI says that Mr Ch holds a substantive appointment under govt the application should be rejected.

The question of calculation of advance on subscription pay does not arise.

Mr. March 13. 1917
16/2/17

My dear Sir,

I have already personally represented the difficulties to which I have been put owing to the delay in the sanction of the house-building advance for which I applied four months ago. My building remains half completed & is liable to be seriously damaged if I do not complete it before the rains set in.

I earnestly request you to pass orders in the matter; and I may mention that if necessary I am prepared to offer as additional security, the building itself upon which I have spent already nearly Rs 6000/- and also my life insurance policy of Rs 3000/- with the Standard Life Assurance Co.

I shall feel greatly indebted if you will kindly expedite the order.

Yours Sincerely
S. I. Chinniah
